Your adventure commences with lunch at Hunter Steakhouse, with a choice of entrée and dessert before your guided tour of San Diego. Featuring the history and highlights of this town with its Spanish influences to the bustling downtown and harbor areas. Travel through Balboa Park, Old Town, the Gaslamp Quarter, Mission Bay, Cabrillo National Monument and much more. Your cozy bed awaits you at the Best Western Seven Seas, a deluxe hotel featuring a restaurant, lounge and swimming pool.

The evening includes a dinner cruise of San Diego Bay for the ultimate in waterfront dining. While viewing the spectacular views and twinkling lights of this seaside town, you will sail the calm waters as you partake in a served dinner while listening to the onboard entertainment.

Day Two starts with a continental breakfast at the hotel before your self guided audio tour of the San Diego Aircraft Museum aboard the USS Midway, America's longest serving aircraft carrier. Step aboard as you will explore the ship from stem to stern while listening to interesting and educational commentaries from former officers and servicemen of this magnificent ship.

Enjoy a seafood lunch with scenic views of San Diego Harbor at the Harbor House in Seaport Village before. Your seaside sojourn ends with a visit the Birch Aquarium at Scripps, where you will encounter a dazzling variety of marine life and the outdoor tide-pool plaza overlooking the sparkling Pacific Ocean.
