

Sequoia's Soaring Secrets

Revel in this landscape that testifies to nature's size, beauty, and diversity—huge mountains, rugged foothills, deep canyons, vast caverns, and the world's largest trees on this 3 day trip.

DAY 1:

- Start with an elegant luncheon at the Guild House. This Victorian house is home to the Child Guidance Guild with proceeds from the lunches go directly to charity.
- Venture into the turn of the century at the Kern County Museum featuring 56 historic exhibits, many in relocated structures.
- Two night stay at the Village Inn in Fresno. The hotel is situated on more than five acres of gardens with a pool and spa area, a restaurant and lounge and cable television.
- Dinner at a local Basque restaurant.

DAY 2:

- Full breakfast at the hotel.
- Enjoy a refreshing lavender tour at the Squaw Valley Herb Gardens.
- Guided tour of Sequoia & Kings Canyon National Park.
- Savor a delicious box lunch under the Big Trees and an easy walk through Grant Grove getting close to the giant Sequoia's.
- A stop at the Visitor's Center completes your fabulous day trip.
- Dinner with choice of entrée at Tahoe Joe's.

DAY 3:

- Full breakfast at the hotel.
- Visit Forestiere Underground Gardens – an intricate maze of tunnels and living rooms all underground patterned after the catacombs of ancient Rome.
- Lunch in Reedley at the Opera House with entertainment.
- Stop at the Mennonite Quilt Center.
