

Sinatra Tribute Tour

with Lunch in Palm Springs

Come celebrate one of the world's most iconic entertainer's life commemorating Frank Sinatra's 100th birthday celebration. The world will memorialize the skinny kid from Hoboken, N.J., whose extraordinary voice made him one of the most influential singers in the nation's history. Ol' Blue Eyes will be the subject of TV tributes, concerts, museum exhibits and endless lounge shows and THIS ALL NEW TOUR.

Nowhere is the celebratory clamor louder than in the Palm Springs area, which Sinatra called home for more than 50 years. The Chairman of the Board and his Rat Pack buddies lived, loved and partied hard here. You will be met by a local step-on guide for The Sinatra "100" Tour taking you past his mother's church affectionately known as "Dolly's Church", along with his Rancho Mirage estate and so much more. Hear the voice himself share the story of a park he so dearly loved while learning a little about this wonderful surrounding you find yourself in. Become a part of "the tradition" while visiting the resting place of Frank and those he loved.

Lunch is included at one of Frank's favorite restaurants, Melvyn's at the Ingelside Inn. Loaded with many pictures of Frank on the walls, the owner and long time employees love to share their many memories of the entertainer. Lunch includes a Monte Cristo Sandwich, Melvyn's Burger or Half Chicken Salad Sandwich & Cup of Soup served with coffee or tea and dessert.

The tour will continue to the "Old Movie Colony", Las Palmas, Racquet Club Estates, as well as other wonderful locations throughout Palm Springs viewing more homes and history of Sinatra, the Rat Pack, and his famous friends.

On your way home, a stop at Hadley's Fruit Orchard to stock up on the famous fruits and nuts.
