At The Historic Mission Inn
with Lunch at Cask 'n Cleaver Steakhouse

Enjoy the delights of the holiday season with this magical tour of the Festival of Lights at The Mission Inn.

The day will begin with lunch at the Cask 'n Cleaver. Founded in 1967 in an old ranch house and set amidst the lush vineyards of historic Cucamonga. Each passenger will enjoy a preselected entrée of Charbroiled Salmon, Top Sirloin or Teriyaki Chicken served with rice or potatoes, ice cream for dessert, coffee or tea, tax and gratuity.

Your next stop will be at the beautiful Mission Inn, where you will experience the most dazzling holiday spectacle of more than 3.5 million lights transforming Riverside's historic hotel into pure holiday magic. A guided tour of the Inn is included before viewing the holiday displays. The holiday atmosphere flows through the downtown district with carriage rides, ice skating and live
