

Doris and Me

Doris Day Tribute Show
with Lunch at the Welk Resort

TWO SHOWS ONLY!

A sumptuous buffet begins your day at the Welk Resort at the Canyon Grille Restaurant featuring carved meats, fresh fish, poultry and a variety of delectable salads, along with fresh vegetables, baked goods and desserts.

One of the most unique and best-loved features of the Welk Resort San Diego is the intimate 339 seat theatre with a museum of memorabilia highlighting the life and career of legendary band leader Lawrence Welk.

Originating at the Welk several years ago, Doris and Me is a one-man show presented by Scott Dreier, a professional performer of theatre, TV, commercials, voiceover, film, recording, and cabaret presenting a reminiscent account of one of Hollywood's beloved stars. One of Scott's favorite films is The Thrill of It All starring Doris Day and James Garner. "There's just something about it," he says. "I love Doris Day in this movie because she makes me happy." As a child, Dreier's pop culture intake was limited. He really wasn't allowed to watch television with the exception of Saturday Afternoon Film Festival that often featured "feel good" movies starring one of America's iconic sweethearts, Doris Day. "I've had this fascination with her since I was a kid, and I always wanted to write a show to celebrate what she means to me and her impact on my life," Dreier says. The show tells of Doris' history, her life, fun backstage stories all interwoven with songs from her songbook. Audiences have raved about this "feel good" show that has it's own Doris Day Happy Ending.
